

Characters

As you read, note interesting and important things you learn about the characters. Describe such things as their personality and appearance, including details about the way they act, think and feel.

Stanley Lambchop

- Calm - He wasn't afraid being flat.
- Confident - He was confident going down the shaft.
- Silly - Slid under the doorways.
- Brave - He said let me tie my shoe laces together.

Mrs. Lambchop

- Fearless - She isn't afraid that Stanley is flat.
- Kindly - She takes Stanley to the doctors.
- Proud - That Stanley could slide under doors.
- Scared - Stanley hasn't been away from home alone before.

Beautiful handwriting Tru

Characters

Record interesting, important and new things you learn about the characters. Describe such things as their personality and appearance, including details about the way they act, think and feel.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mouse

~~Quick thinking~~ - he thought of a plan quickly to jump into the piano to escape the cat.

- Fearful - stuck inside the piano with no way out.

- Optimistic - believes they will get out of the piano because the lady comes to play every evening.

- Genius - he learns two songs quickly.

Mrs. Honeybee

- Pianist - she has played the piano for a long time.

- Animal lover - she wouldn't even kill a wasp or fly.

- Old - her joints were creaky.

- Widow - her husband died.

- Lonely - her family lives far away, she lives alone.

Setting

As you read, note where the story is happening. Explain how the setting is significant to the story and include any descriptive details you find.

- The piano room-where wolf is singing to many mouse.
- Inside piano-where Mary and wolf hide to get away from the cat.
- Mouse hole-where Wolf listens and learns to sing Mrs. Honeybell music.
- Piano room-Mrs. Honeybell leaves chocolate to lure wolf.

Plot

Summarize what happens in this section of the story.

Wolf sings for his mom and then they're chased by the cat. Both wolf and his mom run into the piano and get trapped. They are rescued when Mrs. Honeybell opens the piano. Mrs. Honeybell is amazed by wolf's singing, but wolf and Mary are afraid. They run home. Mrs. Honeybell wants wolf to sing more songs. She leaves chocolate to lure him out of his hole.

Setting

As you read, note where the story is happening. Explain how the setting is significant to the story and include any descriptive details you find.

- Arthur and Stanley's room - the bulletin board fell and flattened Stanley.
- Dr. Dan's office - Dr. Dan checks Stanley out and they measure him.
- Shaft-deep and dark, Mrs. Lambchop's ring fell down there.
- Stanley's brother Arthur tells his parents to come see Stanley. He was flat because big bulletin board fell on him. Dr. Dan can't explain it. Stanley has fun fitting in skinny places. He even goes into a drain to find his mom's ring. Stanley's parents mail him in an envelope to California.

Plot

Summarize what happens in this section of the story.

Excellent
Tru